Oktoberfest

Did you hear about the first restaurant to open on the moon?

It had great food, but no atmosphere.

As a scarecrow, people say I'm outstanding in my field.

But hay, it is in my jeans.

Domestic Violence amongst Veterans

Domestic Violence is a problem that plagues the entire United States, including its military. The military has implemented a new law. The new law stated in Article 128B that any individual who has committed an act of violence against an immediate family member, spouse with the intent to commit a violent offense has committed domestic assault. Any member within a military family; the law covers all family members that deals with emotional and psychological abuse.

The U.S. military takes domestic violence incidents very seriously. The family advocacy program looks into a domestic case and provides assistance for them.

If you are a victim of abuse, please contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1.800.799.7233
